

Gordon Warren

“Well we used to, I remember on a Sunday we used to go to church in the morning, Sunday school in the afternoon, church in the evening, which was about a mile and a half away, we used to do that three times a day, walking, erm, there was no facilities in the village for any sort of doctors or dentists or anything like that. I remember you know, sitting on the back of a big shire horse you know coming up to the farriers, getting him shod and they used to go back with me on the back, making their own way back to the farm, so I mean yeah it was a different ball game all together to what I was used to. We were right ragamuffins running about King Street in Ramsgate so.”
