

June Cowper

"I can, I can remember sitting on the kitchen table crying my eyes out, you know because oh, we, we thought we were living our parents in danger I suppose and well I mean I should have been old enough but it was quite traumatic at that time."