

Bernard O'Donnell

“It was awful because I was dying to pee and we’re in this carriage and we couldn’t get out, and we travelled all the way, I think it probably was to Alton Towers, I’m guessing, it could have been Oakamoor I’m not too sure but I think it was Alton Towers and we went by bus to the school, now called the Faber School, on Coton Lane, and I was still dying to pee.”