“Ah, you know, it was (LAUGHS), after a little terraced house it was, it was a nice big, three storey Georgian double-fronted house, it looked like a mansion to me, but erm, yeah it was great and to learn I was going to be on a farm was er, you know I couldn't have wanted more. Obviously I was sad to be away from home but if I've got to be away from home a farm was a great place to be.”
