

Eileen Faires

“I eventually had to go home, and in the car going home, my mum had come down to fetch me, and I couldn’t understand why they were all crying and er, my I always called Mrs Clowes Aunty and Mr Clowes uncle, and Mrs Clowes was saying to my mother she was a wicked woman for taking me away and I thought but she’s always said I would be going home you know, I found that difficult to understand.”