

Jean Banks

“First of all we were supposed to be going to Canada. Ev and myself, but they wouldn’t let Ev go because she had fits and mother wouldn’t let me go on my own. We’d got relations in Canada. A coach just come along the street one morning and we had to get in it. Erm, we had a dress, a coat, a blanket each, I know we had a blanket each beause he said we were going to be on the train for a long while.”